EDITORIAL PAGE

The Way of Peace

While Communists in Russia and in Canada cry "Peace", they obviously want only one kind of peace. That is the kind that leaves the world in the arms of Russian slavery, with the attendant evils of firing squads and Siberian exile.

The Russian government, represented in our cartoon by the Bear, may be ready to sit down at the conference table and he may not. Certainly, he could, if he wished, quickly ban the threat of war from the scene. But so far he has indicated only a desire to gobble up all the peace-loving nations, and in fact wipe out the hopes of peace.

Grace and Justice

Almost from the earliest days of Christianity the symbol of faith has been the Christ on the Cross. Some branches of the faith have this picture vividly portrayed in small and large crucifixes. But to all who hold the name of Jesus dear to their hearts, He represents the ultimate of sacrifice.

How could a righteous God be just and merciful to sinful man? Not by ignoring sin, because that would not be just. Not by meting out the penalty of a lost eternity to every sinner, because there would then be no chance of reconciliation, nor opportunity for worship, no sweet communion with the Creator.

But God, as one member of the Trinity, was just in exacting the penalty for sin and merciful in that His Son, Jesus Christ, "bore the penalty for our sins on the tree." The soul that would avail himself of both the grace and justice of Almighty God must accept the Sacrifice of Jesus Christ, second person in the Trinity, as his own, for the salvation of himself.

Then the third person, the Holy Spirit, will unite the penitent sinner to his God in the joy of day-to-day worship and fellowship. Such is the miracle of man's salvation.

Two Years In Retrospect

On Nov. 15, 1948, the Right Hon. Louis St. Laurent succeeded the Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King as prime minister of Canada.

During this short period of 28 months the new prime minister has enhanced both his own and his government's record by an imposing list of achievements.

Canada has reached adult nationhood. Newfoundland has become the tenth province, thus extending the eastern limits of our country to the farthest reaches set by the Fathers of Confederation. The Canadian Parliament now has power over the BNA act, and the Supreme Court of Canada is now the final Court of Appeal in all Canadian cases.

Our country has played an active part in the organization of the United Nations and was first to set up a special military force to back up the UN in a military way. A $5,000,000,000 defence budget in three years will strengthen us in case of attack.

Canada is now the largest trading nation in proportion to its population. At the same time thousands of new immigrants are coming here steadily to take their place with older Canadians. High levels of employment and high farm and labor incomes are the order of the day. Except for the U.S.A., we have the highest standard of living in the world.

Advances in social security with higher old-age pensions, a new $170 million National Health program, increased family allowances and completion of the biggest housing construction program of history under the National Housing Act make Canada a better place in which to live.

No wonder a recent Gallup Popular Opinion poll showed the majority of Canadians strongly in favor of the prime minister and his party. Support of the Liberal party by the people of Canada is undiminished.

Rejoiceeth not in iniquity, but rejoiceeth in the truth.—1. Corinthians, XIII: 6.

A Lesson In Socialism

By T. W. PUE

Some time ago I decried the system of keeping school students ignorant of their marks in school. I pointed out this was a mark of the trend towards the socialist state so that no man or woman can rise above his fellows. Every student's mentality is to be kept in rigid check regardless of the natural desire of boys and girls and men and women to excel in some section of studies or sport.

Apparently, down in Yonkers, New York, the teachers are old-fashioned and actually and boldly tell their students what marks they make in their examinations. Not only that, but one teacher has the courage to use this system to teach the fallacy of communism!

Here is what he says:
As a teacher in the public schools, I find that the socialist-communist idea of taking "from each according to his ability," and giving "to each according to his need" is now generally accepted without question by most pupils. In an effort to explain the fallacy in this theory, I sometimes try this approach with my pupils:

When one of the brighter or harder-working pupils makes a grade of 95 on a test, I suggest that I take away 20 points and give them to a student who has made only 55 points on his test. Thus each would contribute according to his ability and — since both would have a passing mark — each would receive according to his need.

After I have juggled the grades of all the other pupils in this fashion, the result is usually a "common ownership" grade of between 75 and 80 — the minimum needed for passing, or for survival. Then I speculate with the pupils as to the probable results if I actually used the socialistic theory for grading papers.

First, the highly productive pupils — and they are always a minority in school as well as in life — are always a minority in school as well as in life — they would soon lose all incentive for producing. Why strive to make a high grade if part of it is taken from you by "authority" and given to someone else?

Second, the less productive pupils — a majority in school as elsewhere — would, for a time, be relieved of the necessity to study or to produce. This system would continue until the high producers had sunk — or had been driven down — to the level of the lower producers. At that point, in order for anyone to survive, the "authority" would have no alternative but to begin a system of compulsory labor and punishments against even the low producers.

Finally I return the discussion to the ideas of freedom and enterprise — the market economy — where each person has freedom of choice, and is responsible for his own decisions and welfare. Gratifying enough, most of my pupils then understand what I mean when I explain that socialism — even in a democracy — will eventually result in a living-death for all except the "authorities" and a few of their favorite lackeys.

Wool and Wheat

The price of wool on world markets has risen most dramatically during the past year. Raw wool in the grease in October 1949 was quoted at $1.01 a pound in New York. The same wool was recently quoted at $3.55 a pound.

While the housewife digs deeper to buy enough for hubby's sock, wool growers of Australia, New Zealand and South Africa are cashing in on these rising prices. They are probably today the richest farmers in the world. But the prices of prairie wheat have been and still are strictly controlled. Far from cashing in on the rise in prices that has taken place in the past five years our prairie wheat growers, as everybody now understands and believes have lost vast sums of money to the extent that many in Alberta, having suffered a 1950 crop failure, are in serious financial straits.

Why in times of rising markets for all goods and commodities the world over should the prairie wheat growers be the only producers to be deprived of the opportunity of enjoying worldwide rising prices, as they are still deprived under the low maximum prices set by the International Wheat Agreement. Surely something is wrong: This merits the careful consideration of our Dominion Government representatives.

Note and Comment

Going to church is not a sure cure for your sins but it will help.

Look before you leap and then, don't leap.

The real art of living includes the art of loafing.

He who lives at high tension usually blows a fuse.

Careful drivers never know when they save their own lives.

The Russian Bear has become the villain of the 'peace'. The democracies must stay on guard to protect themselves from false 'peace' overtures.

Voice of the People

"VOX POPULI, VOX DEI"

SAMARITAN UNNOTICED

Dear Sir—Every time I read this Voice column people are belly-aching. It's always some man complaining about his wife or a wife knocking her husband or some boy hates his girl friend. But what happens when something kind and fine happens, like that fellow in your paper a little while ago who offered one of his eyes that a stranger might see? Nothing happens! Not a word out of your grippers when someone does something nice.

Edmonton. MRS. P. N.

LIFTING THE LID

Dear Sir—After weeks of careful research, I lifted up the cover of that famous box and saw what The Thing is. It's a midget income tax collector.

JOE CLUTTERBUCK, Jasper Place.

FOR LOVE AND PEACE

Dear Sir—These troubled times could be made much better if people would only concentrate on the power of love instead of trying to destroy human life. If all men would love their wives truly and concentrate on making that love the main event of their lives, all the world's troubles would soon melt away, for a real lover has to have time for love.

Edmonton. J. A. D.

CHOICE OF CHRIST

Dear Sir—A Voice asks "how can I know which the 256 religions is right?" What is fundamentally right is not a matter of choice of the many so-called religions. Rather it is a choice of Christ, as the "one and only Saviour." All other choices are secondary.

REV. G. A. SAUDER, Wasaktenau.

OLDSTERS AT 43?

Dear Sir—What on earth do employers mean by saying that a man at the age of 43 is too old to work in a factory or other industry? It's hard to understand, yet that's what they think in some parts of Alberta. They prefer kids of 17 or 18 even to experienced, strong and healthy men in their forties. Is a man supposed to just bury his head in the ground at that age?

Redwater. MRS. ANNA L.

HE'S LEERY

Dear Sir—I was interested in your article about the Farmers' Union of Alberta. I'm from the east and I don't mind saying the article caused some discussion in my family as we in the east have always been leery of those radical Alberta movements.

Montreal. VISITOR.

BEER PLEBISCITE?

Dear Sir—Apparently Jasper Place town faces another plebiscite on the beer license issue in the near future. In January, 1950, the vote was 51.5 per cent in favor of a license. So the law sanctions another petition after one year.

Jasper Place. TEMPERANCE.

KING JAMES VERSION

Dear Sir—In Answer to F. J. McNeely's remarks in the Voice column, I would ask "Have you a King James Bible, the only Bible God has kept perfect all down through the ages?"

Morrin. MRS. M. WATSON.

'DISEASE AND CURE'

Dear Sir—A veteran asked in a recent Voice letter why we always seem to have wars under Liberal administrations. That's easy Whenever economy begins slipping under the Grits and prices begin to drop for the benefit of us poor peasants, they look around for a war to create an emergency. This keeps them in power and keeps prices up — two things which Liberals love. The only solution is to kick them all out.

Killam. M. L. S.

WHERE'S JOHNNY?

Dear Sir—Would you please through your paper try and locate a young man about 17 that was in the accident on the bus coming from Nelson, B.C., on August 16 last year.

I believe they called him Johnny. He had one foot in a cast. If Johnny reads this will he please get in touch with me?

MRS. S. H. POWELL, 1227 12 Ave. W., Calgary.

EVERYBODY WELCOME

Dear Sir—Vilna is a small place compared to Edmonton. I wonder: Does a "small town" boy's letter have a chance to be published, yes?

Vilna. FRANK KRENN.

Herman Linder, World's Top Rodeo Rider Made Debut as 'Cow Girl' at Age 14

LETHBRIDGE, Alta.—BUP—From "cowgirl" to the world's top rodeo rider is the story of Alberta's Herman Linder. When he was 14, Linder wouldn't talk about his "cowgirl" experience on a bet. But today, at 43, he looks on the adventure with a mellow humor and recalls it as one of the most celebrated instances of his life.

"I was 14 years old," he said recently, "and to fulfill the advertising of a girl in skirts riding a bronc, they put skirts over my leather chaps."

"I was thrown right in front of the grandstand, and all I was anxious to do was to keep my face away from the crowd. A fellow who came to help me kept turning my face to the crowd, and I kept turning it away."

"Anyway, I must have looked like a girl, because there was quite an argument over letting a girl ride a bucking horse."

That was at Cardston, Alta., where Linder started riding bucking horses as a boy when he was 12, on the family's ranch. By the time he retired, at 32, he had won the top international honors of the rodeo world.

Alberta Doctors Plan Confab

Alberta division of the Canadian Medical Association and the medical faculty of the University of Alberta will gather in Edmonton, April 30-May 5 for their annual refresher course.

It is expected more than 250 doctors will be in attendance. Subjects on the agenda include surgical practice, obstetrics and gynaecology, and internal medicine.

Dr. J. W. Macgregor, chairman of the group's committee on education, will be in charge of the gathering.

He was North American all-round cowboy five times at the famous Calgary Stampede, and took the world's bucking title in New York. In between times, he rode at Tucson, Cheyenne, Denver, and every other city which featured big-time rodeos.

WON FIRST RODEO AT 16

He won his first rodeo at Cardston when he was 16, and the last, at Lewiston, Ida., when he was 32. "I quit then," he said "because as in most sports, once a rodeo man hits 30, he's bound to start going down."

Linder's father, who turned handspins at 60, was his big inspiration.

"Dad and his sons were always like a bunch of kids together," Linder said. "Dad helped build the chute and would open the gate for us."

Today he runs the big Linder ranch with his brother, Warner, but he hasn't lost his interest in rodeos.

He is president of the Canadian Stampede Manager's Association and vice-president of the International Rodeo Association of America.

32,000 People Served By Rural Health Unit

People living in an area of 2,400 square miles, comprising a population of 32,000, are receiving medical service through the Edmonton Rural Health Unit.

Every month hundreds of families are visited, thousands of examinations and inspections are given, by a staff of 11 full-time workers.

Staff is headed by Dr. H. Siemsen, medical officer of health.

Communities served include Beverly, Clover Bar, St. Albert, Morinville, Legal, Bon Accord, Egremont, Fort Saskatchewan, Gibbons, Devon, Nisku, Calmar, Leduc, and New Sarepta.

During 1950 the Service operated on a budget of $45,660, or an average of $1.20 per person. The budget was made up by $23,040 in provincial government grants, and $22,620 in local grants from municipalities.

Rubella was the most prevalent communicable disease treated in the area during 1950, followed by mumps and chicken pox. In all there were 934 cases of communicable disease.

There were five cases of polio, none of them highly serious. Infant mortality was quite low, with 28 deaths out of 901 births.

There were over 1,300 children examined by the medical health officer during the year.

There were 196 deaths reported in the area during 1950.

Sanitation inspections were carried on throughout the area. Incidentally, there are 39 restaurants operating in the area, and only one was closed last year by the Health Service. It is now operating under new management.

Town of Morinville made the greatest progress in respect to garbage disposal. Gibbons, Devon and Morinville are said to be the only communities in the area where reasonable garbage conditions are being maintained.

There are three milk pasteurizing plants in the area, and 96 per cent of the milk sold in the area is pasteurized.

Health education was carried on throughout the area through public meetings, addresses before various clubs, showing of films, and other mediums.

INTER-CITY RIVALS

Calgarians Told Need Binoculars In Edmonton

CALGARY.—(BUP)—Magistrate I. F. Fitch displayed unjudicial bias here when he faced a meeting of Calgary and Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce members with a speech designed to fan traditional rivalry between the two cities.

With tongue in cheek, the magistrate gave the opinions he had formed of Edmonton in a recent visit.

"It is so spread out," he said of Alberta's capital city, "that I suggest you take binoculars to see across the streets, and a telephone to speak to your next door neighbor."

Several street names provided a basis for further jibes. He suggested that Peace Avenue was mis-named because, "There is no peace in Edmonton."

Yukon Avenue in Edmonton was probably the most appropriate

Teacher's Father Dies At Thorhild

GIBBONS—Miss Laila Laukas was called to Thorhild last Thursday evening by the sudden death of her father. Mr. Laukas lived on a farm midway between Thorhild and Radway.

He collapsed suddenly from a heart seizure. There was no warning as he had been in good health.

No school was held for grades four and five on Friday or Monday but a substitute teacher arrived for Tuesday.

Miss Laukas will remain home a short while with her mother.

named, he said, because it was difficult to tell where Edmonton ended and the Yukon began.

The remarks were returned in kind by visitors from the oil-rich Edmonton area. One remarked that, "Edmonton has the oil, and Calgary has the gas."

Bounties Offered On Wolves, Cougars, Birds

The provincial government will pay $10,000 to the Alberta Fish and Game Association toward the cost of bounty payments on birds classed as pests, it was stated Monday at the legislative building. Bounties for the bird pests, and for timber wolves and cougars also were announced.

Bounty payments for the feet of goshawks, horned owls and snowy owls will be 25 cents a pair. These bounties will only be paid for birds killed this month. Bounties to be paid for the feet of crows and magpies will be five cents a pair.

Residents of Alberta may collect $15 bounty for each cougar taken in the province, exclusive of national parks. Alberta residents also will be paid bounties of $15 for each timber wolf taken between April 1 and Sept. 30, and will be paid bounties of $12 for each timber wolf taken between Oct. 1 and March 31.

Applications for wolf and cougar bounties may be made through the R.C.M.P., justices of the peace, commissioners for oaths, or game and forestry officers. The ears of each pet must be intact upon presentation. The ears then will be split from tip to base by the person receiving the bounty application, and the pet will be returned to the applicant. Persons holding valid licenses to deal in animals pelts or furs shall be eligible to make application for timber wolf or cougar bounties.

The LIGHTER SIDE

What a Life!

Mother had her numerous offspring out shopping, and as they waited for a bus she began to tell them a story to keep the peace.

"One time I was in the middle of the jungle," she said warily, "and I looked up to see a tiger only a few feet away. I tried to run, but with a bound it was on me and I was struck down dead."

"But it couldn't have. You're still alive," protested several of the children.

A weary glance swept the family as mother closed her eyes and replied, "You call this living?"

Guarding Her Luck

Just outside the domestic science classroom, the pretty young student paused to pick up a rusty pin. Whereupon her teacher, who had been walking behind her, exclaimed:

"My goodness! You don't, believe in such silly superstitions as that, do you?"

"I'm afraid I do," the girl replied. And then, glimpsing an expression of horror on her instructor's face, she added reassuringly:

"But you don't need to worry, Miss Wilson. I always sterilize them when I get home!"

Good Reason

"It says here that he was shot by his wife at very close range." "Then there must have been powder marks on him."

"Yes — that's why she shot him."

Quite an Idea

"I'm all out of sorts. The doctor said the only way to cure my rheumatism was to keep away from all dampness."

"What's so tough about that?"

"You don't know how silly it makes me feel to sit in an empty bath and go over myself with a vacuum cleaner."

LETTER TO LOUISA

Wife Shouldn't Neglect Home in Favor of Clubs

DEAR LOUISA—I recently moved to a new town and I have done everything I know to meet the people and become a part of the community life.

I had no trouble in doing this as the people here are very friendly.

My only trouble now is that I am involved in too many things. In fact, I feel that I am neglecting my home and children to do a great many unnecessary things. I am called on to canvass for one organization, fix flowers for another, talk to another, get up refreshments for a S. S. picnic, correct papers for a contest, etc.

I don't want these people to think I am a flash in the pan and run out when the work is to be done but I simply have to slow down. How can I cut out one without cutting out all?

NEWCOMER.

Answer:

Just explain your situation to your new friends and tell them that you will work with the P. T. A. this year and the Garden Club next or vice versa, but that you will be a divorced woman with juvenile delinquents on your hands if you keep on as you have started.

Probably, all the club work you are doing is worthwhile but a woman's first responsibility is her family and they should come first. You will have a great deal of time to do community work when your children are older and many women, at that time, fill the void left by their children leaving home, doing community work.

Remember too that most people have a tendency to work a "willing horse to death," so don't feel that you have to accept every assignment that is given you.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa—My little son will be in the second grade next year. He seems to me to have an amazing fund of general knowledge and I was much surprised when his teacher wrote on his report card that he was "slow to learn."

Do you think that she could be right?

MOTHER.

Answer:

Most of us think our children are brighter than they are but, on the other hand, teachers often make mistakes. One of the great Einstein's teachers rated him as "mentally slow" and "adrift in foolish dreams" so I shouldn't let one teacher's opinion worry me.

Some children find it hard to learn to read — their eyes may be at fault — but are exceptionally smart in other ways. Perhaps his teacher did not make school interesting enough for him to exert himself.

LOUISA.

Many Have TB Without Knowing It

It has been found that many people have at some time in their lives suffered from tuberculosis without suspecting it. Their recovery was due to favorable circumstances or to otherwise good health, but those cases could so easily have developed into serious proportions. The only safeguard against tuberculosis striking and gaining a hold is to have regular chest X-rays, whereby the disease may be detected and treatment started in its earliest stages.

98% Suffering Dental Troubles

Dental disease is a problem that affects 98 per cent of our population. It includes children as young as three years of age. ## Census To Count 730,000 Farmers

Beginning on June 1 this year a census enumerator will visit each of the 730,000 farms in Canada to obtain answers to a series of questions about the farm. The last census of agriculture for all Canada was taken in 1941 and for the Prairie Provinces in 1946. Many farmers will therefore have had previous experience in answering questions on the agricultural schedule, but for some it will be the first experience.

Gypsies, Kings Alike Trip Light Fantastic At Masquerade Dance

ALCOMDALE. — Independence hall looked like carnival time the night of the masquerade dance as ye olden time gentlemen and ladies danced with gypsies or Red Cross nurses. Even his Satanic majesty was present and the children almost stole the show as they lived in story-book land and felt quite at home.

The judges were Mrs. Lacasse, Mrs. Cantrell and Mrs. Friedrichs. They awarded first prizes to Mr. Ward Fulton and Mrs. Wm. Simes and prizes for comics went to Wm. Simes and Mrs. Don Whitson. Peter Rabbit, Bo-Peep, a Jolly Tar and Roy Rogers won the juvenile prizes. In everyday life you know them as Doreen Milla, Carol Harrington, Marjorie Whitson and Billy Byers.

Who said Friday, the 13th, is an unlucky date?

Well Known Couple Exchange Vows Here

MORINVILLE. — A wedding of great interest took place in St. Jean Baptiste in Morinville on Monday, April 16, when Terrence Kinsella, from Riviere-du-Barre and Miss Gertrude Mercier were pronounced man and wife.

Mr. Alphonse Trottier gave the bride away.

Attending the bride were Misses Yvette Deslaurier and Cecile Trottier. The best men were Mark Kinsella and Tom O'Neill. The bride was dressed in a beautiful white satin gown with a long flowing train. The bridesmaids were gown in mauve and yellow.

After the marriage ceremony, the newlywed couple and friends attended a banquet at the Mocombo.

A large crowd of approximately 400 people gathered to extend their heartfelt wishes and congratulations at the dance that evening. The newlywed couple left the next day to honeymoon in the Rockies.

Despite the current century's fantastic mechanical progress hand signals with arm, flag or lantern, remain an essential part of train operation in Canada.

WHERE DOES THE MONEY GO ?

At times most of us have looked at purse, wallet or bank-book, and wondered: "Where does the money go?" You may have wondered, too, where does our money go—the money we receive for gasoline, fuel oil, lubricants and other products we sell. Well, last year each dollar we received went this way:

50.47 cents

CRUDE OIL and the other raw materials we bought took half of each dollar.

25.72 cents

OPERATING AND ADMINISTRATIVE expenses took more than 25 cents. This was the cost of searching for and producing crude oil, and of manufacturing and marketing the hundreds of products we supplied for thousands of uses. Throughout the year high quality products were made available where and when you needed them.

9.13 cents

TRANSPORTATION of products from our refineries to marketing points took the next big bite of the dollar. Products moved over wide areas to serve every community in Canada.

7.64 cents

TAXES to provincial and federal governments took 7.64 cents. And this did not include gasoline tax which—depending on where you live—took from 22 to 33 cents out of every dollar you spent for standard grade gasoline.

3.59 cents

TO REPLACE worn out equipment and to make sure that we can supply your needs in the future took 3.59 cents.

3.45 cents

DIVIDENDS paid to shareholders for use of plants and equipment amounted to 3.45 cents.
